

DOMINIC CORRIGAN
MANAGING DIRECTOR, ALLTECH FINANCE PTY LTD

Dominic Corrigan was appointed managing director of Alltech Australia and New Zealand in May 2002. Dominic's 17 years of experience across all aspects of the local IT industry puts him in an ideal position to manage Alltech.

He was managing director of Comdisco Australia and New Zealand, a global IT services company which had annual revenues of $4.2 billion and 100 locations around the world, from May 2000 to May 2002.

Prior to Comdisco, Dominic was general manager of Dell Financial Services (DFS) – a joint venture between Dell Computer Corporation and CIT. In his two years as general manager, Dominic took the subsidiary from start up to one of the premier IT vendor finance company's in Australia. Dominic successfully created a business that was able to adapt quickly to change at a time when Dell was experiencing hypergrowth in the mid-90's.

Before joining DFS, Dominic spent three years at Comdisco as national sales manager. Dominic was responsible for establishing Comdisco's presence in the computer leasing market, winning a number of high profile customers for the company, including Air New Zealand, Ernst & Young, Ford Australia, Brisbane City Council, Jones Lang Wotton, Novartis, Smiths Snackfood Company, KPMG and Nortel Networks.

Dominic has held a number of senior positions in the local IT industry including business development manager at software services company, Aspect Computing, and sales and marketing positions with IBM in the mid-range systems area.
